

Aalok Club

This year the Aalok club organised a number of activities. It started by organising “Aalok Magazine Cover” designing competition where boys from V to XII participated. Pranit Jain of class V and Priyam Agarwal of class IX were declared winners.

Aalok Club organised story writing competition on the 22nd of April for classes V to XII. Many interesting creative stories were written by boys from the minims division. Rahul Budhia of class V D and Utkarsh Saraogi of class VIII C emerged winners.

During this time boys also learned “How To Make Marks” where some creative work was worth appreciating. Inter-House Hindi Elocution was organised on 3rd May for all classes. Shashwat Sinha of VII B from minims division, Priyam Agarwal of IX B and Nitish Dutta of XII B were declared winners. Inter-House Hindi Debate was organised on 8th July where boys participated with lot of enthusiasm. Abhishek Chaube, minims division, Viraj Kapoor, junior division, and Debaryan, senior division were declared winners.

“Thank You Card Making Competition” was organised on 5th August where boys of V to X participated. Adnan Ahmad of VI C and Priyam Agarwal of IX B were the winners. On 18th August we encouraged the boys to make things out of waste materials. Many useful things were made out of the waste materials. Efforts by Shulcham Khaitan of VIII A, Vatsal of VIII A and Vaibhav Kariwala of VII A were appreciated by everybody .

Aalok Club also organised workshops to give special tips to improve story and essay writing. To improve the speaking skills, special class was held on 16th of September 2013 where points were discussed on participating in elocution and debate.

“Munshi Premchand Essay Writing Competition” was organised on the 25th of October where boys of class XI and XII participated in good numbers.

Aalok club also organised the special canteen to help the evening school children. It also organised a picnic on the 14th of December where almost 125 boys and teachers enjoyed after the final examinations.